

“My experience was highlighted... when you presented that stunning explanation and performance of Ragtime and Barrelhouse piano music.” Network News Anchor

You need not be a piano player to benefit greatly from these classes.

Bob Milne will be teaching basic principles that apply to all of music.

Students will learn how common principles apply to appreciating music on all levels, from Beethoven to Scott Joplin.

The retreat will focus on using your ear to explore and understand harmony, theme and variations, characteristics of various musical styles, and creating your own music. Bob will begin with very simple examples and progress to more complex and in-depth study of very basic musical principles.

Contact the Music Retreat Office to make your reservations today!

Consider reserving a table for 8 for Friday night's 6 p.m. "Pleasant Moments" Dinner Concert.

“Your warmth, humor, personal touch, creativity, and talent as an artist and musician combine to make you...very special...”
U.S. Embassy Ambassador

Anyone who comes to the concerts is guaranteed a good time. Anyone who comes to the classes will learn multiples more about music than they knew when they walked in the door. Anyone who takes a lesson is going to walk away saying, “I didn't realize it was that easy.”
